SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The Army Women’s Foundation Scholarship and Legacy Scholarship Program provides grants to active, retired, Reserve, and National Guard Army women (past and present) and their lineal descendants (both male and female) to help them attain their educational goals. Scholarship recipients are selected based on merit, academic potential, community service, letters of recommendation, and financial need.

For the past 12 years, the program has impacted the future of over 250 recipients from 41 states and territories, valuing over $490,000 - supporting not only those in 4-year college programs, but also certificate, community college, and graduate programs. This year, we have selected 19 Army women and 15 children of Army women to receive scholarships.

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

1LT Taler Brazell – “Receiving this scholarship means a great deal to me as it showcases the power of women empowering other women to both serve and pursue their goals. This scholarship will allow me to greater focus on my studies as I continue trying to pursue my MBA while gearing up to deploy. I hope one day I too can empower other women to push boundaries, give them an opportunity to succeed, and to follow their dreams.”
